Presenter and Entertainer

If you have already thought of everything you must not underestimate the figure of the presenter. It will help you make the evening engaging, respecting a schedule and thus managing to mark the various moments of the evening.

The presenter can also be the entertainer of your event.

We will entertain your guests during the service proposed by the location, whether it is a private or corporate event our goal is to organize your perfect party, choosing together the mode of entertainment you want to mark on your event, leaving no room for boredom and not neglecting elegance.

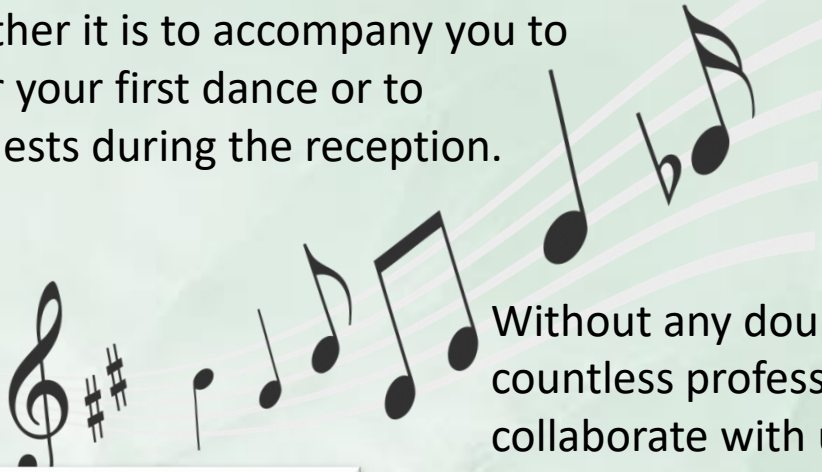

Coordinator

The figure of the coordinator manages times and moments of the wedding, from the church to the location, communicating with all the suppliers involved. It will help you lighten the stress load of your important day and avoid any possible setbacks.

Band and Musicians

There definitely can't be any music at your event. Whether it is to accompany you to the altar, for your first dance or to entertain guests during the reception.

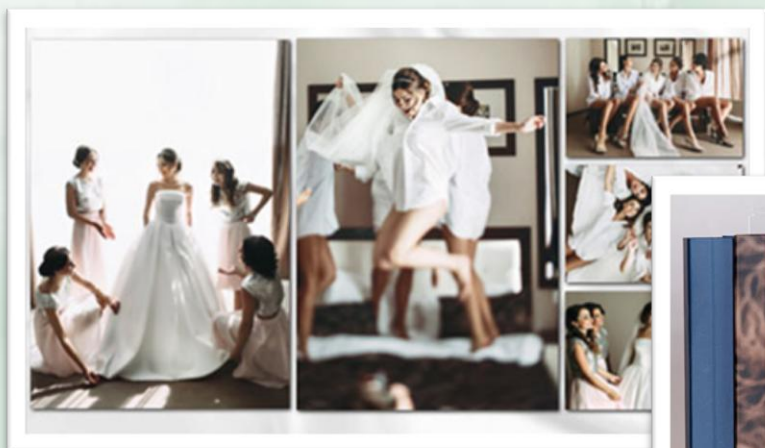

Without any doubt with the countless professionals who collaborate with us, there will be that soundtrack that will accompany the emotions, for your special event.

All our photographers and videomakers are professionals in the sector, they stand out for their discretion and precision, thus managing to capture the most memorable moments of your special event

Atmosphere Performers

This service is characterized by the appearance of men and/or women representing one or more themes, with costumes, accessories and masks that will surprise the guests, making your event captivating, interesting and elegant

Fire Show

The fire show with Extreme events manages to project elegance, professionalism and amazement into the minds of your guests in complete safety.

With ever-changing themed costumes, music and various set design tools, the show is certainly there excellent for entertaining in an amazing, innovative and elegant way and creating a strong impact on the eyes of those who look at it

Fakir Show

The fakir show is a show created by professionals in total safety and creates an atmosphere full of suspense. A show suitable for all target audiences for events on stage, on the street, in the squares, but a refined show to give an extra treat during ceremonies and weddings.

The fakir show is usually divided into several moments where there are various tests of courage in which various elements are the protagonists. Between fires on the body, trampled glass and exotic animals there will be no shortage of amazement among your guests.

Aerial Silk

The show that allows you to recreate
a real circus and amazing moment
for your event

Aerial disciplines are acrobatic disciplines that include a set of elements:
sheets, circles, moons and
various structures
Inspired by circus practices
and through the use of elastic cloth-fabrics (the same ones that give the discipline its name), the athletes engaged in this exercise perform
scenographic and
spectacular movements,
thanks to the height at
which everything happens.

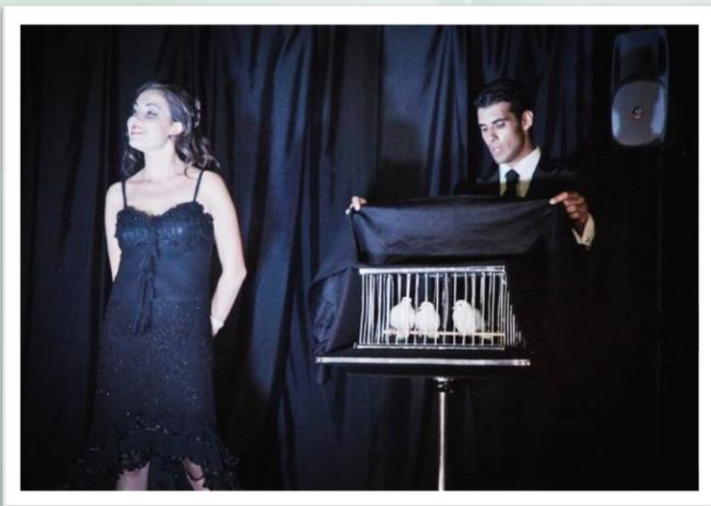

Illusionism Show

The show of great illusionism is the right attraction for meetings, corporate conventions, ceremonies, private parties, nightspots and events of all kinds. The performances have a strong impact on the public, created with highly prestigious and illusionistic numbers performed with elegance and sobriety. From the Great Illusions to stage magic where between scarves, candles and the appearance of delicate white doves will arouse great amazement among those present who will be transported to an atmosphere where the illusion seems to be reality!

The show is always personalized based on contexts and situations, best interpreting the needs of the client and the expectations of his guests, adults or children.

Burlesque Show

It is an entertainment show, similar to variety, in which women alternate sinuous dances with small comical and playful moments. In short, a mix of refined eroticism and irony, which gives life to an entirely feminine art, at the same time light and sophisticated and always seasoned with a mischievous, fun and totally vintage aesthetic taste.

Our Burlesque Show with international artists, world contest winners is the perfect choice to add a touch of glamor and a pinch of spicy fun. Each show is taken care of down to the smallest detail to perfectly adapt to the atmosphere of your event, guaranteeing a performance that ties harmoniously to the context and tastes of the audience.

Trasformist

Suitable for the whole family, captivating, irreverent and engaging, this is the show that in every context will leave your guests of any age with eyes full of amazement and great curiosity.

Transformism, in the context of theatrical entertainment, is the ability to suddenly change one's appearance in order to represent multiple characters in the same scenic context in a few moments.

Waders and jugglers

Stilt walkers are highly sought after artistic figures appreciated for their elongated figure with great visual and folkloric impact. With their original and elegant costumes, they are the ideal artists to welcome the guests of your party, wedding, inauguration, parade or baptism in a lively way

The Juggler is by far the oldest artistic figure. Today like yesterday, juggling is an art that fascinates and captivates children and adults.

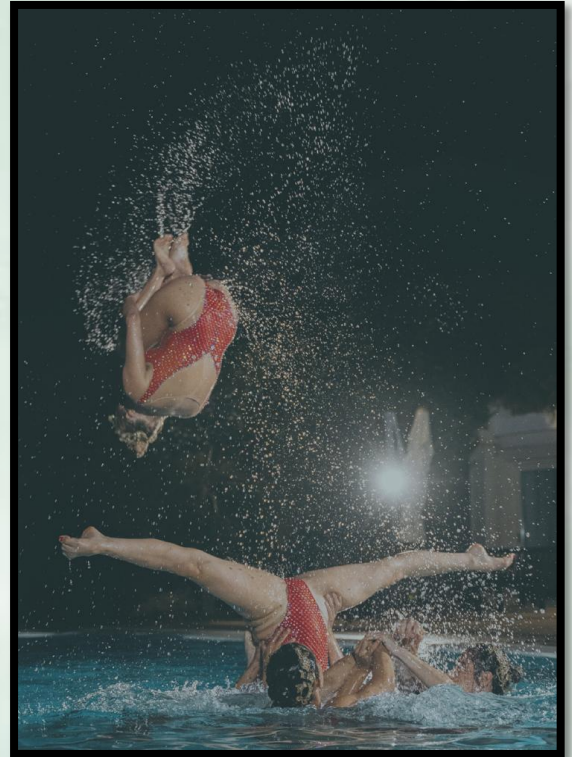

In addition to giving depth to street parties, it is ideal for inserting an unusual form of show into your event to fascinate your guests

Water Show

An experience out of the ordinary

Driven by a passion for excellence, with a team of elite performers and visionary choreographers, we redefine the standards of artistic swimming by creating Arabian Nights shows

A fully customizable service Every detail can be customized to make your event truly special.

Memories Cabin

Our remembrance booth is a great solution to entertain your guests.

An innovative and elegant look, with a thousand different gadgets, will allow you to remember the happy moments of your event, becoming a real confessional for your guests. Laughter, music and party all filmed with a professional video camera

Butterfly

Make your event evocative with the release of butterflies.

Make a “butterfly cloud soar, a symbol of purity and delicacy, which creates a sudden and extraordinary effect.

The butterflies can all be freed together from a single box or the guests can be more involved by giving each a small box containing a single butterfly which, once released, will join the others creating a wonderful effect.

A novelty with a thousand emotions, which in addition to the choreographic spectacularity and the symbolic aspect, contains a profound and important gesture for nature: our butterflies they are raised in an organic and sustainable manner at our farms, treated with care and respect and their release contributes to repopulating the colonies now decimated by human activities.

An original idea, which will make the atmosphere magical and your event unforgettable.

White Doves

The throwing of white doves at the end of the wedding ceremony has always been one of the most evocative rites. Released in flight at the end of the ceremony, they fill the atmosphere with romance and poetry. Doves, in fact, represent purity and fidelity. This bird forms a stable couple that lasts a lifetime, nothing more appropriate, therefore, to wish the spouses a long, peaceful and prosperous married life.

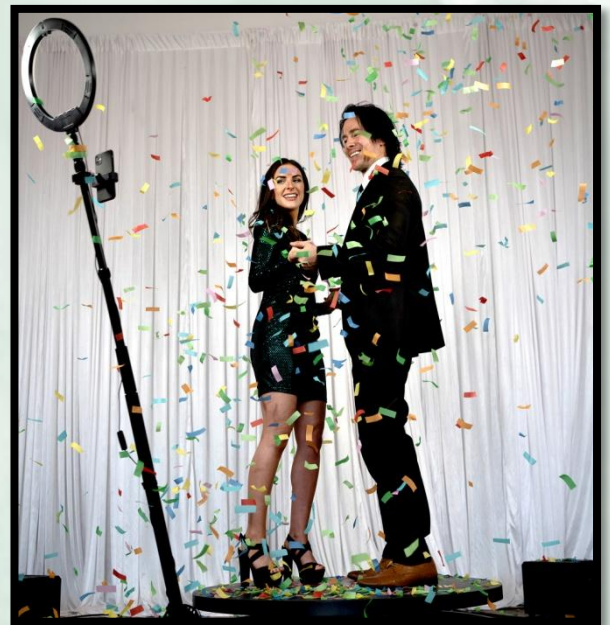

Video 360°

The Photo Booth 360°, thanks to artificial intelligence, captures spectacular 360-degree videos with slow motion effects, music and custom graphics.

Perfect for weddings, parties and corporate events, it offers an immersive and viral experience.

Immediate sharing via QR code or social network and dedicated staff.

Children's entertainment and baby parking (Italian-English-French)
